Numb. 3395.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday December 20. to Thursday December 23. 1697.

Kensington, December 22.

THE following Addreſs was preſented to to His Majeſty by James Worſley Eſq; and ſeveral other Gentlemen, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bolton.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen and Clergymen of the Iſle of Wight, and the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Yarmouth and Newtown.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſties Happy Return to Your People, and to Acknowledge the Bleſſed Effects of Your great Valour and Conduct which we now enjoy in an Honourable Peace, by which we have our Religion and Liberties confirmed and ſecured to us, that Cauſe which Your Majeſty at firſt generouſly eſpouſed, and for which You have ſince ſo often hazarded Your Royal Perſon, this we cannot but remember with the utmoſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude; and we do Solemnly Aſſure Your Majeſty (whatever may have been ſuggeſted to the contrary) that we ſhall on all Occaſions be ready to Support and Defend Your Majeſties Right and Title to the Crown againſt all Your Enemies whatſoever.

The following Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable Piercon Gerard Eſq; and Roger Kirkby Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Macclesfield.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliffs, Common-Council, and other Gentlemen inhabiting within Your Majeſties Antient Borough of Lancaſter in the County of Lancaſter.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſties happy and glorious Return to Your Kingdoms, with that greateſt of Earthly Bleſſings, an Honourable Peace.

A Peace, which as it is upon all accounts moſt thankfully received, ſo it is upon none, more grateful, than that it not only ſecures Your Majeſties moſt Sacred Perſon from the doubtful Dangers of War, (to which You have too often, to our ſorrow, been expoſed) but chiefly ſince it gives us the encouragement of Your Royal Reſidence conſtantly amongſt us, to the Comfort of Your Loyal Subjects, the Terrour of Your Enemies, and the Admiration of both.

We therefore hope Your Majeſty will in this our ſincere Acknowledgement of ſo great a Happineſs, next under God, chiefly the effect of Your Majeſties Courage and Conduct, give us leave to wiſh you moſt affectionately a long and proſperous Reign over theſe Your Kingdoms, of which You are legally and rightfully poſſeſſed.

And as we have formerly offered our Lives and Fortunes, ſo we do freely now our Hearts and Hands againſt all Enemies whatever to Your moſt Sacred Majeſty, whom, as Europe muſt needs own the great Inſtrument of their Peace, and the great Aſſertor of the Proteſtant Cauſe; ſo we think we are particularly obliged, as well in Gratitude, as Duty, to ſubſcribe our ſelves Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

An humble Addreſs of the Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and others the Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Brecon, was preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Edward Williams, their Repreſentative in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable my Lord Privy Seal.

All which Addreſſes His Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Venice, Dec. 7. N. S. The Advices come this week from the Levant inform us, that the Venetian Men of War and Galleys were laid up for the Winter at Napoli di Romania, except ſome light Ships who were ſtill cruiſing in the Archipelago; That the Venetian Forces are all gone into Quarters; and the Captain General Molino was preparing for his return hither, intending to embark, ſo ſoon as Signior Cornaro his Succeſſor arrived there; who paſſ
